I am all at sea on my house plans - I have never received any estimates but I know they will be large & then when I think of all the feeding etc that will have to be done abroad I just know I will not have enough money for it.

Another complication is that since I came away I have been thinking more & more about it all I realize that Journé and St. is practically done I stayed in Genoa with Mrs. Thayer who sailed for home on the 14th Italy has lost for me, something of its home like feeling, even that Mrs Thayer is on the other side of the ocean - There is much to do here & there never seems quite time for it all. We plan to make little day trips to Pisa, Porto, Fieschi & other places.

From here we will go farther south, to Rome, Naples &
